

Willdan Awarded $30 Million Contract to Expand Energy and Infrastructure Modernization Services for the City of Fairfield

April 3, 2025

ANAHEIM, Calif.--(BUSINESS WIRE)--Apr. 3, 2025-- Willdan Group, Inc. (NASDAQ: WLDN) announced today that it has been awarded a $30 million energy savings performance contract to expand energy and infrastructure modernization services for the City of Fairfield's critical facilities. These projects will enhance efficiency, sustainability, and operational performance through upgrades including on-site solar photovoltaic energy generation, electric vehicle charging infrastructure, and central plant renovations.

"These upgrades to City Hall, our police department, and other critical facilities will increase efficiency and resiliency while reducing climate impacts and generating long-term cost savings for our community," said Marisa Cumpian, the City of Fairfield's Sr. Management Analyst. "As the City continues to grow, we appreciate Willdan's ongoing support in improving quality of life for our residents."

Willdan has supported the City of Fairfield for over 25 years with engineering, special district and federal compliance financial services, and electrification strategies for their transit and municipal fleets.
